

Midland, Michigan – DON'T MISS THE EARLY BIRD

Time is quickly approaching to first pitch at the 2012 ISC World Tournament in Midland, Michigan.

With this in mind we would like to remind everyone that you only have until MIDNIGHT (Eastern) on August 10 2012 to take advantage of the Early Bird Price of $49.95 for your ALL ACCESS PASS to the ISC Networks presentation of the ISC World Tournament.

Don't worry though – if you miss the early bird pricing there will be a 2nd ALL ACCESS PASS available to be had – at $59.95 after the 10th of August.

Individual games will still be available for purchase on the ISC Network for $5.95 per game

In addition to the games available on live streaming video, the ISC Network will also broadcast selected games on live streaming audio, free of charge.

Broadcast coverage of the tournament starts on Saturday August 10 at 5 pm central as the Gillies/Huron Wellness squad takes on the Wiarion Nationals, following by Motor City Shamrocks and Shakespeare Falcons at 7 pm and top-ranked New York Gremlins facing the winner of Frankenmuth and Argentina U19 at 9 pm. All three games will be broadcast live on streaming audio at no charge.

The video broadcast schedule kicks off with Pennsylvania Power taking on the winner of Niagara Snappers/Bar on the Avenue Buzz at 2 pm, a game offered free of charge to all viewers. At 4 pm, the two-time defending ISC World Champions, Jarvis Travelers, will take on the winner of Huron Wellness/Wiarion.

Throughout the week, selected games will be simulcast in Spanish language in collaboration with Cristian Lacout of Softbol Radio, based in Argentina.
