Great debut for Argentina in Saskatoon

Tuesday, July 9, 2013 (CAS Communication).- Argentina Junior Men's National Team made its debut this afternoon at the U21 International Men's Softball Championship with a 14-3 victory over British Columbia in five innings, in the match played at Bob Van Impe Stadium in the city of Saskatoon, Canada. Argentina showed his offensive power, connecting five home runs during the game.

Argentina jumped ahead in the bottom of the first inning; RBI singles by Facundo Carril (3-3, 1 R, 1 RBI) and Huemul Mata (2-3, 1 R, 4 RBI), allowed Teo Migliavacca and Roman Godoy score, to go in front by 2-0 .

In the second inning British Columbia scored with Michael Tunner, but in the bottom of the same episode Argentina extended his lead, using the power of the bats. Solo homers by Matias Da Silva and Migliavacca (4-4, 3 R, 1 RBI), preceded the two-run shot by Godoy Román, putting the game 6-1

British Columbia scored again in the top of the third with a fielder choice to second by Brad Robinson. However, Argentina scored eight times at the end of this episode, including three-run homers by Gonzalo Masmú and Mata. The last run of the game fall in the top of the fifth inning, when Kelby Wittich scored, but only to decorate the final score.

The winning pitcher was Roman Godoy, who worked 3 innings, allowing 4 hits and 2 runs, and striking out one opponent. Nicolás Siebenlist worked in relief, pitching two innings, with 1 run, 1 walk and 1 strikeout.

Argentina line up was: Masmú 2B; Migliavacca 1B, 3B Cano, Godoy P, Carril LF, Mata DH, Suarez SS, Da Silva RF, Peker CF.
